East Side Freedom Library hosts author of “A History of America in Ten Strikes”

The East Side Freedom Library will host author Erik Lommis Thursday, February 21st to discuss his new book, “A History of America in Ten Strikes.”

The event is free and open to the public and begins at 7:00 p.m. at the East Side Freedom Library, 1105 Greenbrier Street St. Paul.

Loomis, an associate professor of history at the University of Rhode Island, has been called “a brilliant historian” by The Progressive magazine.

In “A History of America in Ten Strikes” (The New Press, 2018, 320 pages) Loomis challenges contemporary assumptions around labor, unions, and American workers.

He examines ten strikes from the Lowell Mill Girls strike in the 1830s up through Justice for Janitors in 1990 – and how they speak to the present moment.
